University of Nebraska - Kearney
Dr. Timothy Yontz, conductor

about the conductor

Dr. Timothy Yontz is Associate Director of Bands at the University of Nebraska at Omaha where he directs the marching band, supervises the athletic bands, conducts the University Band, and serves as Associate Conductor of the Symphonic Wind Ensemble. Dr. Yontz has additional conducting experience as Music Director of the Nebraska Wind Symphony, Omaha's Community Concert Band. At UNOmaha he teaches Research in Music Education, Instrumental Music Methods, Beginning Conducting, and Advanced Instrumental Conducting and Repertoire. He also serves the UNOmaha Music Department as a student teacher supervisor, academic advisor, and Kappa Kappa Psi Band Fraternity sponsor.

Dr. Yontz holds a Ph.D. in music education at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, a Master of Music from Butler University and a Bachelor of Music Education from Indiana University. He has served as Director of Bands in New Albany, Indiana; New Palestine, Indiana; and Marinette, Wisconsin. He resides in Omaha with his wife Brenna and children, Brent and Bess.

Acknowledged for his conducting and teaching, Dr. Yontz has gained notable recognition from service to the following professional organizations: American School Band Directors Association, Association of Concert Bands, Christian Instrumental Directors Association, College Band Directors National Association, Kappa Kappa Psi Band Fraternity, Music Educators National Conference, Nebraska State Bandmasters Association, Nebraska Music Educators Association and Phi Beta Mu International School Bandmaster Fraternity.

Special Thanks:

NSBA Board for supporting this wonderful experience
 University of Nebraska - Kearney for hosting and offering their facilities
 Dan Wiese for organizing today's lunch for the band members
 Roger Thaden for all the little things...
