Dr. Carolyn Barber, conductor

about the conductor

Dr. Carolyn A. Barber is Associate Professor and Director of Bands at the University of Nebraska at Lincoln. She earned degrees in horn performance from both Northwestern University and Yale University. She received her doctorate degree in conducting from Northwestern as a student of John P. Paynter and Victor Yampolsky. Dr. Barber began her career as a lecturer and assistant to the dean of the Northwestern University School of Music. Prior to her appointment at UNL, Dr. Barber also served as the Director of Bands at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse. Under her direction, the UW-L Wind Symphony performed at the 1998 National Band Association – Wisconsin Convention, and the 2000 Wisconsin State Music Conference. Dr. Barber and the “Screaming Eagles” Marching Band were featured half-time performers for the Green Bay Packers at Lambeau Field (1997, 1999), and for the Vikings in the Metrodome (1996). Apart from her conducting and teaching, Dr. Barber also served for five years as the principal horn of the La Crosse Symphony Orchestra.

At UNL, she currently teaches both graduate and undergraduate conducting and literature courses and coordinates the graduate wind conducting program. She is the conductor and music director of the UN-L Wind Ensemble, and as Director of Bands she is actively involved with all facets of the band program.

Dr. Barber has received numerous awards for musical and academic achievement. Her research interests include extensive involvement in 12 compact disc recording projects, and a growing list of commissions of new works for wind band. She has also published in the Journal of Band Research. Dr. Barber maintains an active schedule as a guest conductor and clinician. Recently, her conducting schedule has included engagements in Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois, Michigan, Nebraska, Kansas, Texas, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and New York. As a performer she has performed with ensembles throughout the USA, in Canada, England, Austria, Germany, and twice in Carnegie Hall.
